

TCRM-WTCA DECISION ANNOUNCEMENT

Subject: About Lokmacı Baba Brand and Niyazi Dumlu's Ability to Use Our Emblems

The provisions in our regulations are based on international laws. Article 8 of the relevant section, which contains these provisions, regulates the use of logos and emblems, symbols of our values and owned by our organizations, including who can use them and for what purposes. As announced on our official website by ZG Foundation on October 4, 2023, due to the reasons stated in the announcement, full authorization has been granted to Mr. Niyazi Dumlu, the founder of the Lokmacı Baba brand, to use the logos and emblems owned by our institutions for commercial purposes in conjunction with the Lokmacı Baba brand and Lokmacı Baba book. Under this authorization and license, Lokmacı Baba brand, Lokmacı Baba book, and Mr. Niyazi Dumlu have the full authority to use the logos and emblems freely and for commercial purposes, either as a company or personally as the author of the Lokmacı Baba book, while ensuring the absolute benefit and interests of Turkish culinary culture.

- Information About the Content of Article 8: Article 8 defines the ZG Foundation under the relevant title and subtitles. The official logo of the ZG Foundation consists of the silhouette of our Honorary President Zeki Gülyiyen. Just like in the official logos of the World Turkish Cuisine Academy and TCRM; unauthorized use (without holding written license documents or certificates sealed by us) of our logos and emblems, symbols of our values, constitutes an action that is a crime under international law. TCRM, in accordance with the rights arising from international legal norms, initiates legal proceedings within the framework of laws against individuals or legal entities attempting to unlawfully use our logos and emblems for the purpose of commercial gain, interest, or benefit without authorization.
- A summary of the announcement made by ZG Foundation on October 4, 2023, was as follows: Niyazi Dumlu, who has been practicing the confectionery profession for many years, continues the understanding of craftsmanship in accordance with the Ahilik culture, thus keeping alive this culture that is on the verge of being forgotten. Niyazi Dumlu's commitment to our values and superior merit, embracing the virtuous principles contained in the Ahilik culture and traditions, has ensured that the privileges detailed below are granted to him and the Lokmacı Baba brand.
